

Early Learning and Childcare (ELC) could be the career for you if you're a great communicator, a team player, are organised, plus have the energy and enthusiasm to inspire young children

Are you helpful, reliable, approachable, flexible and keen to learn?

You are demonstrating some of the key skills, qualities and attitudes found in successful ELC professionals!

The early years in a child's life are crucial in all aspects of their subsequent development and can influence future attainment.

Aberdeen City Council will be offering a variety of Modern Apprenticeship opportunities in ELC.
