Oxford and Cambridge S6 Interviews Information Sessions Scotland 2016

We are writing to invite you and/or your S6 students to join us in Glasgow, Edinburgh or Aberdeen at one of a series of events led by Corpus Christi College, Oxford and Selwyn, Pembroke and Homerton Colleges, Cambridge, on behalf of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge.

Where and when?

Glasgow
Jordanhill School

Wednesday 14th September
4.30pm—6.30pm (Following on from Glasgow UCAS)

Edinburgh
Stewart's Melville College

Thursday 15th September
2.15-4.15pm

Aberdeen
Robert Gordon's College

Friday 16th September
10.15am-12.15pm

What?

Why do Oxford and Cambridge interview applicants?

An introduction to the way in which the two universities run their selection processes and the context of the interview among the other elements of an application

Interviews: the practicalities

We will explain many of the practicalities of interviews such as when and where interviews take place and how long they are likely to last, as well as who conducts the interviews, and how many interviews students can expect, etc.

Interviews: content

What will interviews involve? What sort of questions will students be asked? How can students best prepare? This section will involve students separating into themed groups, relevant to their subject of interest.

Q&A

We will invite and encourage questions throughout the sessions.

Who?

These information seminars are open to students in S6 who are considering making an application to the University of Oxford or the University of Cambridge. The events will be led by a team of Admissions Tutors, Schools Liaison Officers and academics from the two universities, with expertise in the Arts, Humanities, Social Sciences and Sciences. Teachers and advisers are also very welcome to attend.
